OFFICE OF RESEARCH AND REPORTS

Summary

Unscheduled Intelligence Support - 1964

Economic, Military-Economic, and Geographic Intelligence

FOREWORD

The purpose of this summary is to list those reports and projects prepared by ORR during 1964 which are primarily ad hoc in nature. The list does not include reports which were formally programmed for regular production during the year.

[redacted] prepare research programs which cover their anticipated schedule of reporting on an annual basis. These programs of regular research reports are revised occasionally during the year in order to provide reporting on new priority subjects. [redacted] reports listed below are in addition to regularly scheduled reports and were prepared in response to direct requests or in support of clearly identified requirements for policy support. Items in response to continuing support responsibilities, such as for OCI publications, USIB Watch Committee and economic defense activities, while significant, are not listed.

The resources of [redacted] are largely occupied in responding to specific requests of other CIA and U.S. Government components. Except for a few continuing projects its entire output can be considered as ad hoc.
